BANNED & recovered

artists respond to censorship

an exhibition at the San Francisco Center for the Book and the African American Museum and Library at Oakland Hanna Regev, curator

It's not just the books under fire now that worry me. It is the books that will never be written. The books that will never be read. And all due to the fear of censorship. —JUDY BLUME

Censorship and fear are a continuing threat to intellectual freedom in the United States and around the world. In recognition of this, over 60 artists have joined in this project to create work based on banned or threatened books.
